

HIV/AIDS Resource Center for Clinicians

The Southeast AIDS Education and Training Center (SEATEC) provides HIV information and skill development that is accurate, current, practical and compassionate. Services are directed toward providers in Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee, who deliver care to underserved and at-risk populations. Clinical preceptorships in HIV care settings offer unique opportunities for physicians and other clinicians to acquire HIV clinical management skills and ensure rapid dissemination of treatment information to clinicians.
